

Accredited Management Organization (AMO®)

As members of IREM® we are recognized as experts in the field of Real Estate Property Management. The CPM® designation, ARM® and ACoM accreditations are sought after attributes when there is an employment position to fill. Likewise the AMO® accreditation is a sought after attribute when owners and investors are looking for an organization to manage their properties.

The AMO® accreditation lets owners and investors know that your organization is held to the highest standards in our industry and that your organization has the education, experience, and ethics to manage their properties while maximizing the value of their investments.

Earning the AMO® accreditation places your organization with an elite group of management firms and tells owners, investors, and clients that their properties are in the best possible hands.

Some of the valuable benefits an organization receives as an AMO® include:

- IREM® premier member rates for IREM® courses for ALL of their employees
- A listing in the online AMO® Directory
- IREM® marketing programs that promote AMO® firms to owners and investors

You can read more information on the benefits of AMO® accreditation at www.irem.org.
